For each topic in the book, initially a brief concept has been presented, followed by the solved examples of various types. In most of the cases. At the end of each topic, an assessment test has been provided for students in order to assess their understanding. The content is mainly useful for the students who are preparing for various competitive examinations, campus recruitment tests like GMAT, MAT, CMAT, XAT, etc., along with the M. Tech. entrance examination (GATE).
